

Case Study: Sevenoaks Preparatory School

Pinnacle were chosen by architect Hazle McCormack Young to assist in the refurbishment of Sevenoaks Preparatory School's new specialist Centenary Centre.

Architect Hazle McCormack Young selected Pinnacle to help replace the temporary modular buildings. The School wanted the new building to be a calm, bold and imaginative space for the students to learn in. There were various areas involved in the project including classrooms, science laboratories, an IT room, and an Art room.
